Behavior Code Information

Our school has high expectations of all students. In order for students to reach their potential, classrooms and schools must be free of disruptive behavior.

Maintaining good discipline within the schools is also a community responsibility. Parents must be familiar with and supportive of the school standards and work closely with staff.

Whenever possible, a teacher will ask parents for help in correcting a problem. If the situation continues or is serious, the teacher will seek assistance from the school leader or his/her designee or a local community agency for professional intervention services.

CCA does not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, economic or documentation status, handicap, sexual orientation or national origin in regard to disciplinary actions against students.

Rules and regulations apply to students both virtual and on school ground premises; before, during and after school hours; during school events or functions off of school grounds; when traveling to and from school or to a school activity, function or event; at bus stops or at any time or place which may affect an educational function or be identified with CCA.

Examples of most rules are provided. Each rule is accompanied by the range of consequences to be incurred upon the violation of that rule. The school administrator will determine the level of the consequence based on factors such as the age of the student and the severity of the offense.

CCA does not permit employees to use corporal punishment (the physical striking of a student as a disciplinary measure) in disciplining a student. It is recognized that reasonable use of physical force and restraint may be necessary to stop a disturbance that threatens physical injury to others to obtain possession of dangerous objects from students; for the purpose of self-defense; or for the protection of persons or property.

The teacher and/or administrator may use various means in an attempt to change student behavior including, but not limited to: Counseling students; assigning detentions; having conferences with parents; assigning extra responsibilities or time in school (placing the student in a "partner" classroom or send to the Behavior Team. Additional options may include assigning a community service project, referral to an intervention team, or removing the child from class for a day, pending review of the situation. The school leader/designee and teachers may cooperatively remove a student from a classroom for more than one (1) day if this consequence would be beneficial in solving the problem. A school administrator may use any of these and up to ten (10) days of suspension, and in some cases, a school leader may recommend a student be placed in an alternative program or expelled.

School leaders may also establish rules and regulations, as long as they are consistent with the Behavior Code of Conduct, the policies set by the CCA School Board, or other rules and regulations established by The Leona Group, LLC.

Discipline Procedures for Special Education Students

General education, special education and ELL (English Language Learners) students are subject to disciplinary procedures, which promote positive behavioral change and/or ensure the well-being of others. The goal is to have all students function successfully in their educational and social environments and to protect fellow students, school staff members, and public property.

Disciplinary procedures affecting students identified as needing special education services will be administered in compliance with federal and state laws. A casual conference will be scheduled if disciplinary charges recommending expulsion are filed. A copy of the suspension/expulsion procedures for special education students is available in the CCA Special Needs office.

Honors

César Chávez Academy is proud of its students, and it is a privilege to honor students who have achieved academic excellence.

At the end of every card marking CCA, will determine whether a student has achieved academic excellence based on their cumulative GPA.

In order to qualify for the Principal's List, a student must achieve a GPA of 3.80 or better. To qualify for Honor Roll students must achieve a GPA of 3.00 to 3.79 and cannot have any letter grade lower than a D in any subject.

Lice Policy

Lice and their eggs (nits) can become a major challenge anywhere where large numbers of people gather in social settings such as schools, churches, and businesses. At César Chávez Academy (CCA), the goal of our school community is an environment that is clean, safe, and healthy. Unfortunately, lice can become an impediment to a clean school if they are permitted to thrive.

CCA will enforce the following guidelines:

- Students may be checked to determine if lice or their eggs (nits) exist.
- Thorough lice checks will be performed on as needed basis.
- Students diagnosed with live head lice do not need to be sent home early from school; they can go home at the end of the day, be treated, and return to class after appropriate treatment has begun.
- Student will be re-admitted after they have been checked by a designated CCA staff person. Any days absent after the initial day will NOT be excused.
- CCA is prohibited from dispensing lice-egg remover to any parent, guardian or child. Referrals may be made to a city clinic (i.e CHASS Clinic at 313.849.3920).
- Students affected by head lice are required to make-up school homework related to school hours lost.
- Students and/or parents are responsible for communicating with the teacher about when and how delinquent school work will be made-up.

The students and staff at CCA deserve the very best educational environment possible. CCA's Lice Policy is designed to make the school community an effective conduit for high student achievement and parent collaboration.

Technology

César Chavez Academy has a strict technology policy. Failure to comply with the following policy will bring immediate dismissal from the CCA class and/or future use privileges of school electronic devices.

Personal Electronic Devices Policy

César Chávez Academy limits the Use of Cellular Phones and Other Electronic Devices to applications allowed by school personnel. In order to maintain a safe learning environment, the following guidelines must be followed:

- Students are not allowed the use of a personal electronic device in class and school activities for non-emergency purposes, unless permitted by the instructor

- Personal electronic devices must be silenced during class time so that they do not disturb the educational process.

(See rule 6) Do not take pictures or video of other students or staff on school property, school-sponsored events, or school bus.
- Additional excluded personal electronic device usage is up to the discretion of school administration

Students will only be allowed to use their electronic devices for personal use before and after school. During the school day, students will be directed on where their electronic devices should be kept during day by school personnel. Electronic devices that are misused during the instructional day may be confiscated by any staff member and turned in to the Behavior Department. In the event of an emergency, the student will be directed to use the school phone. Only parents/guardians will be allowed to retrieve the cell phones once they are confiscated for the second time.

Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action against the student. Such disciplinary action may result in the confiscation of the ECD/ESD.

A student who possesses an ECD/ESD shall assume responsibility for its care. At no time shall the school be responsible for preventing theft, or loss or damage to the ECDs/ESDs brought onto its property. (Board Policy).

1. Swearing, use of foul or abusive language, obscene or threatening gestures.

Automobiles

Student parking is a privilege at CCA, limited by the available space, and is extended to students in good standing who meet parking permit application criteria. Students who qualify for a permit may park at CCA only if they remain students in good standing, complying with the following conditions. Students with parking permits who fail to abide by state, local, or school standards for behavior and/or vehicular operation shall face consequences including, but not limited to, revocation of the parking permit and/or privilege. No refunds shall be given to students who lose their permits due to parking and driving conduct. School administrators, teachers and the CCA campus officer shall monitor and report adherence to student parking requirements and/or violations.

Search and Seizure

To maintain order and discipline in the schools and protect the safety and welfare of students and school personnel, authorized school personnel may conduct a search of a student's locker, book bag, his/her possessions/belongings or automobile if there is reasonable suspicion for a search. A certified dog and the handler may be used to initiate a search. Reasonable suspicion for a search means there are circumstances which would cause a reasonable person to believe the search of particular person, place, or thing will lead to the discovery of:

A student's failure to comply with searches and seizures as outlined in this policy will be considered grounds for disciplinary action.

1. Evidence of a violation of this code or Michigan Law; or
2. Anything which represents a danger of physical harm or illness to students, teachers, assistants or others at school, a school-sponsored or school-supervised event or otherwise.

Automobile Searches

Students are permitted to park on school premises as a matter of privilege, not of right. The school retains authority to conduct routine patrols of student parking lots, canine searches, and other inspections of the exteriors of student automobiles on school property. Such patrols and inspections may be conducted without notice, without student consent, and without a search warrant. Interiors of registered vehicles will be searched in the presence of the student or whenever possible and only if a school authority has reasonable suspicion.

Anything found in the course of a search, which is evidence of a violation of the CCA Behavior Code, may be:

1. Seized and admitted as evidence in any disciplinary suspension/expulsion proceeding;
2. Destroyed if it has no significant value;
3. Turned over to the parent of the student from whom it was seized; or
4. Turned over to a law enforcement officer.

Attendance

Good attendance is essential if students are to reach their potential. Each day is an important opportunity to learn. Additionally, children ages 6 through 16 are required by state law to attend school with few exceptions. Parents are required to ensure their son/daughter maintains good attendance. Parents will also provide current emergency phone numbers.

It is the parent's responsibility to call the school by 8:00 AM the day the student is absent. If a parent does not call, the school will call the parent that day to verify the absence.

A parent needs to provide documentation for an absence to be considered excused. However, a period of extended illness (such as for the chickenpox) may be considered a single absence for this requirement.

A parent of a child with a chronic illness needs to obtain documentation from the child's physician. Once this documentation is reviewed by school personnel, the parent/student may be exempted from securing a doctor's statement each time the student has an absence related to this illness for the school year.

Consequences for unexcused absences are as follows:

Middle/

High School

Ten (10) unexcused absences may result in loss of credit in a class. Loss of credit may result in retention. Students may be considered tardy to class if they arrive after the bell rings or after the designated starting time if there is no tardy bell. In the high school, credit may be lost after eight (8) unexcused absences.

Any student who is absent for 10 consecutive unexcused days will be dropped from the school's enrollment. It is the administration's discretion to determine whether or not an absence is excused or unexcused.

Tardy

It is an essential part of the educational experience for students to be on time to class. Students who are chronically tardy cause a disruption to the educational experience. Therefore the following policy will be in effect for all students.

Students arriving tardy to school may also have academic and social implications for the student. It is equally important for students to arrive on time as it is for students to be present on a daily basis. Students arriving tardy may miss their breakfast and/or the beginning of instruction.

Period to Period Tardy Violations/Consequences

CONSEQUENCES FOR TARDY VIOLATIONS
Offense	Action	Consequences
1st-4th	Warning	Student will get a verbal warning.
8th	Parent contact	Parents will be called and explained the student's behavior.
10th	Detention	Parent is responsible for picking up and dropping off the student.
12th	Saturday Detention	Student will serve a Saturday detention.

Michigan school laws are very strict in regard to the compulsory attendance of children 6-16 years of age, and holds parents/guardians responsible for their child/children's regular attendance in a manner that is "continuous and consecutive for the school year" (MCL 380.156 (1)).

5. Out-of-school suspensions (a student who is suspended is absent without excuse but counted for reporting purposes).

Make-up Work

Vacation time during instructional days is never permitted. Students missing 10 or more days of instruction may be dismissed from the CCA district.

Students who have been absent are responsible for picking up assignments and if possible to make up any other work upon their return. The time frame for completing make-up work upon return to school varies according to the age of the student.

Notification to parents

1. Parents/guardians must notify the school of any absences within 24 hours of the student's absence. Parents/guardians must notify the school of the nature of the absence, i.e., illness, family emergency, etc. Every effort should be made to schedule routine appointments after school hours. Family vacations should be planned during holidays as outlined in the school calendar. Parents/guardians should discuss the importance of good attendance with their students to avoid loss of credit due to violations of the Attendance Policy. Parents have three (3) days to bring in a doctor's note to the office.

2. A parent conference will be held within five (5) school days after a total of ten (10) days absent.

Students will be dropped from enrollment if they accumulate 10 consecutive absences.

3. Parents will be notified if additional consequences for absenteeism are being considered.
4. A home visit by the school truancy officer or social worker may be made if parents do not come to the parent conference.
5. A loss of credit and enrollment will result due to too many student absences.
6. Retention of students may be considered if absences and tardy days total sixteen (16) or more.

Morning Tardiness

When a student is late to school in the morning, that student must report to the office to receive a late pass. Parents must understand that students will not get credit for activities that take place before a student arrives and that tardiness may affect their grades. It is possible for multiple days tardy to school may affect a child's grade to the point where he/she may fail.

Early Drop-offs/Late Pick-ups

The school is not responsible for children who are dropped off before the start time, until they are admitted into the building. Elementary school students not picked up by 3:30 PM will be sent to Surround Care and the parent will be responsible for those charges.

Disciplinary Consequences

Minimum and maximum levels of disciplinary consequences are listed. It is intended that discipline be progressive in nature and move to a more serious consequence with each violation. In the case of more serious offenses, the consequences may not be progressive in nature but reflect the seriousness of the situation. Students who break rules are subject to disciplinary consequences by teachers, administrators or other school personnel. These consequences will apply equally to all students based on their infractions. All students will be treated fairly and equitably, and are entitled to due process. In making discipline decisions, in addition to following the IDEA, districts must also follow the requirements for disciplining all students under the Michigan Revised School Code (MCL 380.1308-1311a).

Positive Behavior Intervention & Support

CCA has put into action an effective positive behavior intervention and support (PBIS) system. It is a proactive, positive, skill-building approach to teaching and learning of successful student behavior. Positive behavior intervention and support systems ensure effective strategies that promote prosocial behavior and respectful learning environments. The PBIS program is designed to accommodate the needs of each individual school building and grade level.

Consequences for Elementary Students

It is recognized that violations of certain rules and the resulting consequences for students in elementary school may be different than the consequences for older students. When no distinction has been made in this document, the School Leaders may choose to utilize the lower range of consequences for elementary-age students, whenever appropriate, if the consequence resolves the offense.

Suspensions

If an out-of-school suspension is being considered, the student will have an opportunity to hear the charges against him/her and to present his/her side of the story. Parents will be notified to discuss the suspension. The reason(s) for the suspension will be provided to the parents and student. If the intent of the school leader is to file written charges for an expulsion, parents will be notified in writing within two (2) school days.

Alternative Consequences

If in the judgment of the school leader/designee, based on the age of the student and/or nature of the offense, an alternative consequence is satisfactory to resolve the offense, the school leader/designee has the authority to develop an appropriate alternate disciplinary consequence under a written contract with the parent, student and the teacher as appropriate. This written contract will be retained in the administrative office.

Law Violations

If the student violates the law, the police department may be involved depending on the severity of the offense. Parents will also be contacted.

First Level Administration Interventions

Coordinated by assistant school leader or designee (social worker, master teacher, in-school suspension coordinator, etc.)

Second Level Administration Interventions: Administered by the school leader and/or assistant school leader. Students must be removed from class until picked-up by parent or released at the end of the day. Suspended students may not participate in after-school activities or special events.

Board and Administration Interventions

Expulsion hearing; A student may be expelled upon recommendation of the Board of Directors; notification of Wayne County Probate Court and the Michigan Department of Education upon expulsion.

Zero-Tolerance Policies

These behaviors will be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency and will be subjected to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion as deemed appropriate by the administration.

Student/Parent Appeal

If a student or parent believes the student is being improperly punished or subjected to an illegal rule or standard, he/she should follow these steps:

1. Discuss the situation with the student's teacher. If either party is not satisfied, a conference with the teacher, student and school leader may be requested.
2. Communication and discussion with the school leader.
3. Communication and discussion with the superintendent or designee.
4. Communication and discussion with the CCA Board of Directors to resolve the issue. If not resolved, then repeat step #3.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND SEXUAL ASSAULT INFORMATION GUIDE

What is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual harassment is unwanted sexual remarks or behaviors. It can be verbal, physical, or visual. Here are a few examples of sexual harassment.

Verbal:

- Making sexual jokes, comments, or spreading rumors targeted at someone (in person or online)
- Making sexual jokes or comments about students' bodies or how they look or act
- Making jokes or comments about students' masculinity or femininity and/or who they are attracted to or love

Physical:

- Pulling at or touching someone's clothing in a sexual manner (like pulling down someone's pants or snapping a bra strap)
- Touching, pinching, or grabbing someone in a sexual way
- Brushing up against someone's body on purpose

Visual:

- Posting or sharing sexual comments, pictures, or videos
- Pressuring someone to take or send sexual pictures or videos ("nudes")

Sexual harassment can make someone feel many emotions

You may feel scared, uncomfortable, upset, embarrassed or angry.

When it comes to sexual harassment, what matters is how the action makes a person think or feel--not the intention of the person who did it.

Sexual harassment can happen anywhere or to anyone. It can take place in person or online. But no matter where sexual harassment happens, it is never OK. It is wrong and it is against the law.

What is Sexual Assault?

Sexual assault is any sexual act that one person chooses to do to another person without consent (permission) through physical force, threats, or pressure (verbal or emotional).

Here are a few examples of sexual assault:

- Touching someone's genitals, breast, or butt without their permission (consent)
- Unwanted behavior or touch over or under clothes
- Unwanted kissing
- Physically forcing someone to perform a sexual act
- Threatening or pressuring a person to do any sexual act
- Unwanted vaginal, oral, or anal penetration with a body part or object (also known as rape)

Sexually assaulting another person is wrong and it is against the law.
In Michigan statute, this is called “Criminal Sexual Conduct.”

About Consent

- Consent means that each person agrees or gives permission.
- Anyone can change their mind at any time.
- Consent means each person understands what is going on and agrees to all of it.
- Someone needs to get consent every single time.
- Just because someone said “yes” before, does not mean “yes” now.
- It is not OK to use threats, emotional pressure, or the fact that another person is drunk or high to get what you want.

If someone doesn't consent to sexual acts it is sexual assault.

What if This is Happening to Me?

It is not your fault. You are not alone.

- No one has the right to sexually harass or assault anyone else.
- You have the right to feel safe and respected.
- If you feel like you won't be harmed, tell them this is not okay and to stop.
- Consider telling a trusted adult if any of these behaviors happen to you. If the trusted adult is a teacher, coach, or school staff, they may have to tell someone else (like a principal, parents, etc.). If you're not sure if you are ready or want to tell a trusted adult at your school, you can talk to them without saying it happened to you ("I have a friend who...").
- If the first person isn't helpful, keep trying until you find someone who is.
- Speaking up is a brave thing to do. Don't be afraid to seek help from someone you trust.
- Resources listed on page 4 are available 24/7 to support you.

Scientific research tells us that people who experience traumatic events like sexual harassment and sexual assault have many different responses in their brains, bodies, feelings, and behaviors. However YOU respond to trauma is OK and is normal.

What if This is Happening to Someone I Know?

Believe. Listen. Support.

- Believe them! If someone tells you that someone has sexually harassed or assaulted them, know that it is very hard to tell someone about this and that person trusts and respects you enough to share this information. Let them know that what happened is not their fault and you are there to support them.
- Listen without judgment. Give them space and time to tell you what they feel comfortable sharing.
- Ask how you can support them. What you would need might differ from what your friend needs, so always ask. Let your friend decide who else can know.

Resources

There is Help.

You can call or chat with any of the resources below 24/7. People who are trained are there to listen and support you no matter what. You don't have to tell them your name. They can connect you with people and organizations nearby who can help you with questions or needs.

Note: If you report to a Title IX Coordinator, they are required by law to follow up and may conduct an investigation.

If you report a sexual assault or sexual harassment incident, the policies forbid someone from retaliating or doing something to get back at you. See page 5 for your school's Title IX information and other related policies.
